

China Adrift

- England badly wanted to be allowed into China, but had been forbidden.
- China tried to keep England and the West out.
- The English continued to smuggle opium into Canton.
- The English smuggled opium through many ports on the coast of China.
- The British forced the Chinese to sign the treaty of Nanjing, which was called the “unequal

NEW WORDS!

Seppuku - Ritual suicide.

Bribe - make illegal payments to in exchange for favours or influence.

Dikes - A barrier constructed to contain the flow of water or to keep out the sea.

Embezzled - take something fraudulently to one's own use.

Some of Lin Zexu's men burying the opium in the enormous hole near the water.

China Adrift

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

NEW WORDS!

Seppuku - Ritual suicide.

Bribe - make illegal payments to in exchange for favours or influence.

Dikes - A barrier constructed to contain the flow of water or to keep out the sea.

Embezzled - take something fraudulently to one's own use.

---

---

---

