

New Colonies in the New World

Peter Stuyvesant came from Holland to govern the unruly colony of New Amsterdam

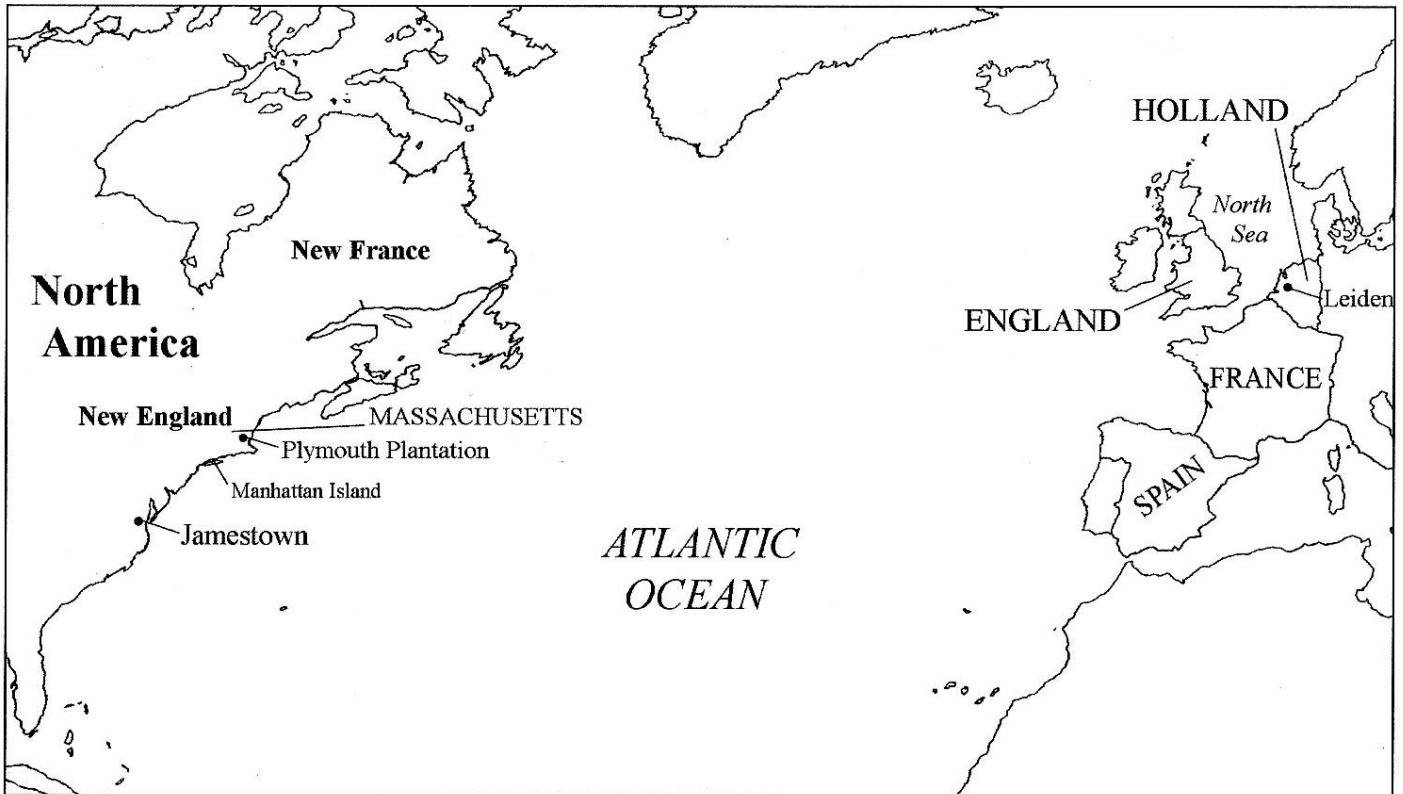

- William Bradford and the Separatists lived in England.
- The Separatists left England for Holland.
- The Separatists began to forget their English customs in Holland. So they left and sailed to North America.
- European countries were establishing colonies in the New World.
- Holland was also establishing a colony in North America.

NEW WORDS!

Separatists - Puritans who separated themselves from the English Church.

Pilgrims - Christians on a holy quest to build a colony where God would be worshipped.

New Colonies in the New World

NEW WORDS!

Separatists - Puritans who separated themselves from the English Church.

Pilgrims - Christians on a holy quest to build a colony where God would be worshipped.
